Profile Waiver Request for the Noncustodial Parent

- Your noncustodial parent is required to complete a CSS Profile application. If you have no contact with your noncustodial parent, you may request to waive this requirement from each college. See below process for next steps.

- Submission of this request does not guarantee that a waiver will be approved.

Types of waiver requests that may be considered:
- Documented abuse situations involving you and your noncustodial parent.
- Legal orders that limit the noncustodial parent's contact with you.
- No contact or support ever received from the noncustodial parent.

Examples of documentation that may be required:
- Court documents or legal orders, as available.
- Third-party documentation – preferably a written statement or letter from a counselor, a social worker, a teacher, or clergy who has first-hand knowledge about and can certify your situation.

Statements from family members or attorneys may or may not be accepted.

Types of waiver requests that will not be considered:
- Noncustodial parent refuses to complete the CSS Profile.
- Divorce decree states that the noncustodial parent is not responsible for the student's educational expenses.

Instructions for submitting the CSS Profile Waiver Request for the Noncustodial Parent:
- Print the form and complete it.
- Sign the completed form.
- Make a copy of your signed and completed waiver form for each college that will accept it.
- Submit the signed copy, with all required documentation, to each college you are applying to that accepts it.
- Keep a copy for your records.
